

NEW SOUTH WALES THERAPEUTIC ADVISORY GROUP

REGISTER OF LIFESAVING DRUGS Updated January 2009

The NSW TAG Lifesaving Drugs Register is maintained by NSW Therapeutic Advisory Group as a service to member hospitals. It is intended only as a mechanism for information sharing. It does not provide recommendations about either appropriate stock levels or clinical management for emergency situations. Details have been provided by pharmacists in participating public hospitals in NSW and ACT and are updated annually.

Contents	Page
Part 1 provides contact details for participating hospitals.	2
Part 2 provides information about indicative stock levels for Antidotes	6
Part 3 provides information about indicative stock levels for unmarketed products.	15
Part 4 provides information about indicative stock levels for Antivenoms as recommended by NSW Health.	16

Disclaimer

Stock levels quoted in Parts 2 and 3 of the Register are based on reports received by NSW TAG member hospitals. Stock levels in Part 4 are based on advice provided by NSW Health (see: http://www.ciap.health.nsw.gov.au/downloads/guidelines/Snake_spider_guidelines_GL2007_006_A2.pdf for more information). These stock levels will not necessarily be actually held at all times. For more detailed information about actual stock holdings at a particular time, and access to stock in emergency situations, please contact individual hospitals.

Part 4: Antivenoms

Recommended stock holdings for antivenoms in NSW hospitals are listed in the NSW Health Guidelines for Management of Snake Bite and Spider Bite (2007) at: http://www.ciap.health.nsw.gov.au/downloads/guidelines/Snake_spider_guidelines_GL2007_006_A2.pdf. Hospitals will normally hold recommended stock levels.

For further information about Management of Snake Bite and Spite Bite, see the full guidelines at: <http://www.ciap.health.nsw.gov.au/guidelines/snakebite/>

Please contact individual hospitals for further information.
